Panther Ridge Honored As Top-Rated Nonprofit

GreatNonprofits.org Award is based on Positive Online Reviews

WELLINGTON, FLORIDA — Panther Ridge Conservation Center announced today that it has been honored with a prestigious Top-Rated Award by GreatNonprofits, the leading provider of user reviews about nonprofit organizations.

“This top rating is exciting to us and reinforces what we hear from visitors year-round,” said Judy Berens, executive director of the nonprofit big-cat sanctuary. “We are proud of our ratings here and our Trip Advisor 5-star ranking as well

The Top-Rated Nonprofit award was based on the large number of positive reviews that Panther Ridge received – reviews written by volunteers, donors and clients. People posted their personal experience with the nonprofit.

While the Top-Rated Awards run through the end of October, Panther Ridge was part of the inaugural group to qualify for the year. In addition, we’ve been added to GreatNonprofits #GivingTuesday Guide—an interactive guide to top nonprofits throughout the years. Look for this near the holidays.

“Savvy donors want to see the impact of their donations more than ever,” said Perla Ni, CEO of GreatNonprofits, “People with direct experience with Panther Ridge have voted that the organization is making a real difference.”

Being on the Top-Rated list gives donors and volunteers more confidence that this is a credible organization. The reviews by volunteers, clients and other donors show the on-the-ground results of this nonprofit. This award is a form of recognition by the community.”

Founded in 1999, Panther Ridge is a non-profit conservation center in Wellington, Florida that provides a home, haven and hope for some of the world’s most majestic and endangered big cats. Visit www.pantheridge.org to learn more about our work and donation opportunities.
